

To whom it may concern,
XM has proven a track record of high quality entertaining music, talk, news, and programming that I've elected to subscribe to. The addition of the local traffic and weather is a great added value, and should not be stopped. Those at the NAB should face the same fair competition that XM and other satellite radio providers have faced. I urge you to reject NAB petition 04-160. Thank you.